

NORWELL PUBLIC LIBRARY
CELL PHONE USE POLICY

The Norwell Public Library will limit the use of cell phones within the library building to ensure an atmosphere conducive to independent study and contemplation. In consideration of other library patrons, phones should be silenced when entering the building.

Patrons needing to place or receive a call are asked to use the library foyer.

Adopted June 2004
Revised February 25, 2014